Lira de Kronoasa

SONG · SACRED

kube krono po lombila, maivo po lenila taivo de melonulu.
When time began, I heard your melody

taivo de valla po ke baba lira de navuasasan lumi.
Your voice was a song of celestial light

taivo de manliri po ke li lumiasasan biti raho po farlafa li pagoasa.
Your hands were the divine instrument which created the universe maivo po ke baba melosan lavra ata taivo de valla po donuda maivo lavi.

I was a music bird and your voice gave me joy

mavopago po lenila maivori de melonulu gase vera.
Society heard our melody as truth

mavopago po donuda benaseno ala li lumiasasan melo.
Society gave praise to the holy music

saivori po lenila li narvonasan vani de li melonulu raho po lumila.
They heard the flawless beauty of the melody which shined yesta li raleri de li sadori de li ramumomvisan po lenila maivori de lira.

Even the echoes of the shadows of the forgotten heard our song li peremori de mavopago de lordina po ke ramumomvisan ata po ne relsira.

The problems of society of chaos were forgotten and not answered li cilni de mavopagoasa po kronobioka en li vanisan vilneri de li mareasa.

The city of heaven was born in the graceful eyes of the mother lumiasasan lumi po sarbisia verasan lirari kopisa li yanbasan veluri lenila.

Divine Light wrote truth songs for the old stars to hear ata li veluri po sarbisia ko salye su li ranbe de farulavrasan amor.

And the stars wrote with surprise on the strength of phoenix love maivo ke taivo de kronoasasan jomrusan lirasan lavra eli-krono ata toda-krono ki?

AM I your timeless traveling song bird, now and always?

oro maivo ke li suma raho tivrota taivo de mareasasan lore ki?

Or am I the warmth which holds your mother heart?

maivo po lenila taivo de yomlasan valla, ata eli po ke maivo de letosan nimu.

I heard your honey voice, and this was my letter home

maivo opi maivo de lira ke vardesan de taivo de felberi.

I hope my song is worthy of your ears
